

Because You Matter Ministries Minutes

Volume 5 Quarterly Issue July, August, September, 2013

Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High, will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the Lord, “He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.” Psalms 91

THIS PLACE

As I walk into this place,
There near the wall sits a lonely face.
Now wheeled into the room
Where praise and worship begin soon.
I hear the words about a King
As I watch the lonely face grandly sing.
Listening of God’s great grace,
Once again I notice the face.
The eyes of the face are closed and lifted high,
And then I see the face does cry.
The cry is that of joy
Such as a child with a well used toy.
With arms reached as high as able
To a King born in a stable,
Who lived but only to die,
Those arms reached to the sky.

As I leave this place

The lonely face,

Now clings to our dear Lord’s Grace

For a love that has been found

Where great joy shall reign abound.

The poem above can be representative of so many of the people that we are in contact with as a part of this ministry. When we enter a facility or a gathering room, there are many residents who are glad to see us come into their homes. They love singing and hearing songs of praise. Hearing the Word of God being spoken to them. Unfortunately the work of Satan is never done. Recently we learned of a lady who was upset because she had been told by someone else that our services were not teaching the truth. We informed her that the verses we read are straight from the Bible which is God’s Word.

We need to pray that the Holy Spirit will work on this situation and have her conflicts healed.

It is our endeavor to make sure that we bring the truth the bible has for all of us. We want to make sure that all the people we come in contact with, that have any type of conflicts in their lives, can trust the Bible for the answers they need.
