Volume 4    Quarterly Issue    October, November, December 2012

The blessing of the Lord brings wealth, without painful toil for it Proverbs 10:22

The Lord has been good to Because You Matter Ministries Inc. this year. We are blessed to serve God in various ways this past year.

We minister to those who already have a personal relationship with the Lord by ensuring they have interaction with other believers so they can keep growing deeper in their relationship with the Lord. At times when talking with believers during the last year they tell us, "The message you brought us was exactly what we needed. We cannot get enough of this." We are blessed to know we can meet a need for those who do not have access to go and hear the Word of God spoken.

We also minister to those who may not have that personal relationship with the Lord. Our ministry is not just to those who are shut in, but also to their relatives, friends or the employees of the facility.

We seem to have quite a few who sit with us or may be listening from a hallway. You can tell when someone is listening from a hallway when you see their lips singing a song or their heads are turned, facing you when bringing a message, listening intently. You never know when the Holy Spirit is going to work on someone's heart, whether you are speaking directly to a group or someone who might be over hearing what we are saying. These are examples of one type of blessing.

Another type of blessing this year was the ability to acquire a cargo trailer. We were able to get a trailer for $2000.00 cheaper or about half the price of other trailers of the same type. This trailer is going to be used for many different applications. One is to house a lot of the different equipment and supplies that are used in the ministries already. A second use of the trailer will be to go on disaster responses, to haul needed equipment and supplies to affected areas of need. A third is to help move furnishings for people from place to place for those who might be in transitional housing or low income situations. We are sure there will be other ways to use the trailer for the service of God's people.

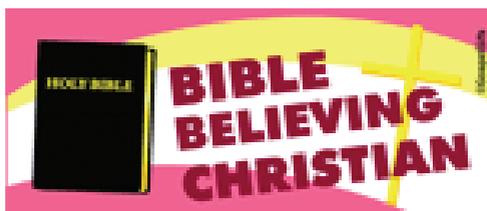

We will keep praying that God will keep blessing the ministries in the coming year and we ask for your continued prayers.
